Greetings

The B-lot Group contributes to society through its work and pursues profits in an honest and above-board manner.

We aim to continue growing well into the future as a company whose employees and executives thoroughly enjoy their work and one that is a dynamic part of society.

My mission is to cultivate the B-lot Group as a company that will continue growing well into the future. From the time of our founding, as a venture company we have worked consistently to create new value for society.

Our approach has been to enjoy taking on the challenge of doing highly creative work, evolving, and pursuing profits in an honest and above-board manner.

Above all, we aim to be a company that enjoys our work. We pride ourselves on being a company where executives and employees are filled with a spirit of challenge and one that fosters an environment of achieving success obtained in sincerity through operations based on a sense of freedom and responsibility. Rather than resting on our laurels, we aim for robust growth through ongoing self-improvement and friendly competition. At the same time, we are a company of colleagues who value a high level of teamwork. I am convinced that a company of our nature deserves to continue growing well into the future.

As a company listed on the First Section of the Tokyo Stock Exchange, we view the changes occurring on a daily basis in the social landscape and the macro environment as business opportunities. We target stable long-term growth based on a high degree of professionalization and teamwork.

Personally, I find the company to be incredibly enjoyable and fulfilling. I devote myself on a daily basis to ensuring that the people who provide strong support for our business feel the same way. In this spirit, I ask for your ongoing guidance and support.
